

VicLANES

The VicLanes Report was launched by the Hon Bronwyn Pike MP Minister for Health on Wednesday 23 May in the Yasuko Hiraoko Myer Room at the Sidney Myer Asia Centre. Also speaking was Chief Investigator Associate professor Anne Kavanagh; VicHealth CEO Todd Harper and Director of the key Centre for Women's Health Professor Doreen Rosenthal.

Speakers remarked on the importance of the VicLANES research to inform policy and provide evidence for planning decisions.

The audience was treated to a demonstration from Hawthorne Pryme Moves, a strength training group for the over 50's. Under the charismatic instruction of Alan Owen Jones the audience were encouraged to participate in some of the exercises.

The launch was attended by personnel from Health Promotion, Policy and Social Planning.
